DURBAR

*The DURBAR Series
created by Marlborough Military Models*

British Imperial India reached a peak of pomp, spectacle and pageantry in the magnificence of the Durbars – official receptions – held in the late Victorian era. The most lavish of all was the one organised by the Viceroy, Lord Curzon, to celebrate the coronation of Edward VII. The Durbar began in Delhi on 29th December 1902, and lasted for 10 full days into the New Year.

More than 1,000,000 people lined the streets of Delhi on New Years Day, 1903, shouting and jostling for a sight of the opulent procession of Maharajas, ambassadors, sheikhs and government officials who led the grand state entry to the Durbar arena. It was a sight worth seeing – painted and tasselled elephants, gilded howdahs, sleek horses and rich carriages, soldiers, bands and hundreds of functionaries – all paraded the streets that New Years day.

DESPIE HIS REGAL BEARING AND COSTUME, THIS GENTLEMAN IS PERHAPS A SLIGHTLY LESSER MORTAL THAN THAT FEATURED IN D72. HE CERTAINLY NEEDS A STRONG STOMACH AS HIS CUP SHAPED HOWDAH CANNOT HAVE BEEN VERY STABLE. HIS UNFORTUNATE ATTENDANT BALANCING ON THE HIND QUARTERS OF THE ELEPHANT, AS WAS THE PRACTISE IN THE SHAN STATES, MUST HAVE HAD AN EQUALLY ROUGH RIDE.

THE LADDER WAS USED TO ASCEND THE ELEPHANT THUS AVOIDING DAMAGE TO THE CAPARISONING IF THE ELEPHANT HAD TO KNEEL FOR THIS PURPOSE. THIS ELEPHANT IS SHOWN PASSING THE VICEREGAL PARTY WITH THE MAHOUT COMMANDING HIS CHARGE TO RAISE HIS TRUNK IN SALUTE.

D137 ELEPHANT CARRIAGE REWA STATE.

REWA WAS A 17 GUN SALUTE STATE AND PART OF THE CENTRAL INDIA AGENCY. IT WAS BASICALLY A RAJPUT STAT WHERE THE MAHARAJA RULED ONLY AS A SERVANT OF THE DEITY, RAMCHANDRAJI. THERE WERE MANY RELIGIOUS FESTIVALS AND PROCESSIONS AND SO THE MAHARAJA COMMISSIONED 2 MAGNIFICENT ELEPHANT CARRIAGES TO TRANSPORT THE ZANANA (LADIES OF THE ROYAL HOUSEHOLD IN STRICT PURDAH), AND THE MARDANA (PRINCES AND NOBLEMEN) TO THESE EVENTS. THIS SET FEATURES THE MARDANA CARRIAGE WHICH APPEARED IN THE 1902/3 AND 1911 DURBARS.
