un hecho bajo las instrucciones
del Cuartelmaestre Genl.

Memorandum to accompany the illustrations of the uniform of the Army for 1882.

Changes made in the uniform of the Army of the United States, since September 1882, are not shown, as they were made while the plates were in process of printing.

The regulations do not require the stripes upon the trousers of musicians, but it has, nevertheless, been customary, at some of the posts, for musicians to wear stripes, perhaps under the authority contained in Par. 2781, Rev. Reg. of 1881, authorizing bands and chief musicians to wear special uniforms. Hence the illustration of Artillery musician shows the stripes.

Memorandum to accompany the illustrations of the uniform of the Army for 1882.

Under the decision of the Secretary of War, of May 14, 1883, the cord on the blouses indicating arm of service, shown in illustration of "Fatigue Dress and Summer Helmets", (Artillery) is discontinued.

x Sanitizados por el Capote "Muro" = Vase el parte de movimiento de Octubre de 1884

2732. For a Principal Musician.—Three bars and a bugle.
 2733. For an Ordnance Sergeant.—Three bars and a star.
 2734. For a Commissary Sergeant.—Three bars and a crescent (points up) of same color as chevron and above it.—[G. O. 38, 1873.]
 2735. For a Hospital Steward.—A half chevron of emerald green cloth one and three-fourths inches wide, piped with yellow cloth, running obliquely downward from the outer to the inner seam of the sleeve, and at an angle of about thirty degrees with the horizontal, and in the centre a "caduceus" two inches long, the head toward the outer seam of the sleeve.
 2736. For a 1st Sergeant.—Three bars and a lozenge.
 2737. For a Battalion or Company Quartermaster Sergeant.—Three bars and a tie of one bar.
 2738. For a Sergeant.—Three bars.
 2739. For a Corporal.—Two bars.
 2740. For a Pioneer.—Two crossed hatchets, of cloth, same color and material as the facings of the uniform coat, to be sewed on each sleeve, above the elbow, in the place indicated for a chevron (those of a Corporal to be just above and resting on the chevron), the head of the hatchet upward, its edge outward, of the following dimensions, viz :

Handle, four and one-half inches long, one-fourth to one-third of an inch wide.

Hatchet, two inches long, one inch wide at the edge.

2741. [Revoked by G. O. 92, 1882.]

2742. For Enlisted Men of the Signal Corps.—Crossed signal flags, red and white, on dark blue cloth ; size of flags, three-fourths of an inch square ; length of staff, three inches, after the pattern in the office of the Chief Signal Officer of the Army. This device to be worn by the non-commissioned officers above the chevrons ; by privates of the first class on both arms ; and by privates of the second class on the left arm only, in the same position as the chevron of non-commissioned officers.

2743. To Indicate Service.—All non-commissioned officers, musicians, and privates, who have served faithfully for one term of enlistment, will wear, as a mark of distinction, upon both sleeves of the uniform coat, overcoat, and blouse, below the elbow, a diagonal half chevron, one-half inch wide, extending from seam to seam, the front end nearest the cuff, and one-half inch above the point of the cuff, to be of the same color as the facings on the uniform coat.—[G. O. 92, 1882.]

2744. In like manner an additional half chevron, above and parallel to the first, for every subsequent term of enlistment and faithful service. Distance between each chevron, one-fourth of an inch.

2745. Each service chevron will conform in color to the arm of service in which the soldier served.—[G. O. 92, 1873.]

2746. The service-in-war chevron will be one-half of an inch wide, of the same color as the facings, with a piping, on each side of the stripe, one-eighth of an inch wide,—white for Artillery and red for all other arms,—thus making the chevron three-fourths of an inch in width in the aggregate, and will be worn by enlisted men on the uniform coat, overcoat, and blouse, as soon as the right to wear it has been earned.

The campaign chevron will be identical with the war chevron, except that it will be one-half of an inch instead of three-quarters of an inch in width in the aggregate, and will also be worn by enlisted men on the uniform coat, overcoat, and blouse, as soon as the right to wear it has been earned. But one campaign chevron for each enlistment will be allowed, notwithstanding that the soldier may have served during such enlistment in more than one campaign for which chevrons are authorized.

All soldiers who, during the war of the rebellion, were in the volunteer service are entitled to wear the war chevron, provided they served in one or more campaigns in the field.

The service-in-war chevron will be worn next the cuff ; above this will be worn the service chevron or chevrons ; and next above this the campaign chevron.—[G. O. 92, 1882.]

2747. War and service chevrons are issued without charge.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

2758. The Quartermaster's Department manufactures (at the Leavenworth Military Prison) the shoes for the Army of the best materials and patterns possible. No particular shoe is adopted as uniform.—[G. O. 76, 1879.]

2762. The helmet cords will be attached to the left side of the helmet and come down to the left shoulder, where they are held together by a slide ; one cord then passes to the front and the other to the rear of the neck, crossing upon the right shoulder and passing separately around to the front and rear of the right arm, where they are again united and held together by a slide under the arm ; the united cords then cross the breast and are looped up to the upper button on the left side of the coat.—[G. O. 67, 1873.]

2763. Cork helmets will be supplied only to troops serving in extremely hot climates, in the first and third years of their enlistment, and these only in lieu of the campaign hat. The necessity for such issue must in all cases be certified to by the Department Commander.—[G. O. 72, 1880.]
